

ENHANCING PERSONAL QUALITIES FOR SECURITY PERSONNEL

SABAH SKILLS & TECHNOLOGY CENTRE

INTRODUCTION

Security personnel as front liners play a very important role in the organization. Not only are they responsible for lives and property that can be worth millions or billions but also an everyday role of interfacing with customers, suppliers, contractors, visitors and staff. It is vital that security personnel are projecting a secured image by being an ambassador of any organizations. While management would rather be using its energies for greater productivity, quality and yield than managing crises, it ought to be remembered that security is a function that operates 24 hours and all year round. It is imperative that security personnel are alert at all times and keep the organization secured at all time. This exclusive security program has been specifically developed to Enhance Personal Qualities for Security Personnel. It is designed to ensure they are aware of their roles and responsibilities, enhance teamwork, developed core skills and are competent professionals in this specialized field.
